

NAWI NOTES

Fall 2009

The National Association for Workforce Improvement (NAWI) is an organization dedicated to program improvement in Career and Technical Education

Dear CTE Colleague,

If you participated in the NAWI 2009 conference in Scottsdale, Arizona, we want to thank you for making the conference a true success! We appreciate your participation, contribution, and commitment to the cause.

We are very excited about the NAWI 2010 Conference, CTE: High Performance Education, in Alexandria VA, April 21-23 at the Sheraton Suites located in Old Town Alexandria.

We invite you to consider submitting a presentation proposal. Key areas of interest for this year's conference include:

- Integration of Academics and CTE
- Improved Achievement
- Active Learning
- Green Technology
- Creative Use of Technology in the Classroom
- Use of Social Networking in the Classroom
- Transitions
- Learning Styles
- Collaboration
- STEM

If you are currently part of such a program, submit a proposal to present so you can share details about your innovative program with other CTE and business-industry professionals around the country – this includes secondary, postsecondary and workforce education.. The NAWI conference offers presenters and attendees processes and information that can be directly applied and close networking opportunities with leaders in their field.

In addition, there will be business and industry tours within the Alexandria and Washington DC area. Please check out our website at www.nawionline.org to see past conference agendas.

So join us April 21-23 in Alexandria, VA and learn about how CTE is taking education to the next level

See you April!

Jason

2010 Conference Call for Presenters

National Association for Workforce Improvement

April 21-23, 2010

Sheraton Suites Old Town Alexandria, Alexandria, VA

CTE: High Performance Education

You are invited to submit a proposal for presenting at the 2010 NAWI conference. This year's conference at the Sheraton Suites Old Town Alexandria, Alexandria, VA will focus on CTE: High Performance Education. We are seeking to identify a variety of approaches that support the conference theme to help teachers, workforce developers, counselors, administrators, and business partners meet the challenges of the future.

Conference attendees include staff from secondary schools, community colleges, and technical institutes, as well as government leaders in workforce development and representatives of business, industry, and labor. We invite you to participate in the conference and to submit your most innovative idea as a possible presentation. Session proposals that include supporting data/statistics will receive top consideration.

Presentations may address, but are not limited to, the following topics:

- | | |
|------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------|
| ◆ Integration of Academics and CTE | ◆ Improved Achievement |
| ◆ Learning Styles | ◆ Transitions |
| ◆ STEM | ◆ Active Learning |
| ◆ Creative Use of Technology in the Classroom | ◆ Collaboration |
| ◆ Green Technology | ◆ Use of Social Networking in the Classroom |

Proposal Submission

Please attach a proposal of no more than two typed pages with the following information:

- TITLE OF PRESENTATION – Approximately 10 words. (Should catch the attention of conference attendees and accurately describe what your session will entail.)
- DESCRIPTION – 50 to 75 words that will be used in the conference program to persuasively and accurately tell attendees what to expect from your session. (This is a marketing opportunity, so be sure the description is engaging and notes benefits of attending, including any special features of your session.)
- PRESENTATION PLAN – Provide a brief overview of your proposed session, including content activities, visual aids, and handouts. Describe the learning outcomes you expect and how you plan to ensure audience involvement. Traditional lecture-only presentations are discouraged. Reviewers are looking for innovative practices, new ideas, and active learning opportunities.
- SUMMARY OF EXPERIENCES IN CONDUCTING PRESENTATIONS – Provide a brief summary of the presenter's experience in conducting recent workshops and presentations at regional or national conferences. (Please do not attach a resume.)

Send a copy of the completed proposal to the following address (e-mail preferred) for receipt no later than February 1, 2010, to:
